

INFORMATIONAL SHEET

Many of our communities are receiving incorrect information about current immigration enforcement and executive orders. In order to help our communities receive accurate information we have provided links that may be helpful in understanding the current political climate and change.

GET THE FACTS

- Executive Orders or changes to our current federal and state laws take time to implement and change. Here is the link to current Executive Orders and its mandates:
<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/executive-orders>
 - Detailed information on immigrants' rights: Detailed information on Immigration after the election:
<http://scjustice.org/informacion-para-inmigrantes-despues-de-la-eleccion/>
 - Know the laws in your state that address immigration:
<http://www.scstatehouse.gov/>
 - Stay current and informed. Verify your source of information before sharing with the community. Present them with facts not “hear say” information. <https://www.uscis.gov/news-releases>
-

The information provided is only for information purposes. The SC Commission for Minority Affairs is not responsible for third party views and information.