

South Carolina Commission for Minority Affairs

Statement of Non-Partisanship and Non-Discrimination

As a state agency, The South Carolina Commission for Minority Affairs is non-partisan and has no political affiliation or bias. Our work focuses on ensuring our vision that “[a]ll ethnic minority citizens of the State of South Carolina will be treated equitably and achieve economic prosperity through socio-cultural awareness, collaboration, policy change, and research.”

Furthermore, in accordance with state and federal civil rights laws, the Commission does not discriminate based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity (including gender expression), sexual orientation, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, or political beliefs.
