SOUTH CAROLINA MINORITY VOTER REGISTRATION AND PARTICIPATION

The South Carolina Commission for Minority Affairs ("CMA") has joined with the South Carolina Election Commission to educate the state's minority communities about the importance of voter registration, voter education, and voter participation.

Through this partnership, the South Carolina Election Commission will share with the South Carolina Commission for Minority Affairs information regarding voting changes and updates and information pertaining to the need for more poll managers and poll workers. The Commission for Minority Affairs will act as a liaison into the state's minority communities, and will disseminate informational flyers regarding voter registration, voter education, voter participation, and other important electoral measures.

ABOUT THE S.C. COMMISSION FOR MINORITY AFFAIRS

The South Carolina Commission for Minority Affairs is the official South Carolina state agency bridging the gap between our ethnic minority communities. The Commission's mission is to be a catalyst that identifies and examines emerging issues and trends by providing constructive solutions and approaches to support the policy and socio-economic development of ethnic minority communities.
